

UCAA CODE of CONDUCT

The UCAA is intended to provide safe opportunities for the recreational, physical, moral, intellectual, and spiritual development of our children. It is absolutely essential for parents, coaches and officials to encourage youth athletes to embrace the values of good sportsmanship to maintain a healthy and safe environment. Adults involved in youth sports events should be models of good sportsmanship and should lead by example by demonstrating fairness, respect and self control.

A stable, working relationship must be comprised between league officials and all active participants to manage the essentials necessary to make the UCAA a fun and positive experience for all! The standardization of all league policies will be enforced and a Zero Tolerance Policy will be in place to avoid compromising the hard work of all to prevent any ongoing issues. The inability to maintain this relationship with UCAA policies will be dealt with swiftly and based upon the nature of the infraction possible removal from the league for parent and player may be the result!

I am committed and agree to be responsible for my words and actions while attending, coaching, officiating or participating in a UCAA event and shall conform my behavior to the following code of conduct: Removal from the UCAA may be the direct consequence for violating any of the below code of conduct !
